Late Night Programming: A Pilot

The Center for Student Life is developing new initiatives for recognized student organizations to have more programming opportunities on campus. Although IUP has not allowed students to conduct programming beyond midnight for several years, the university is now considering proposals for programs extending until 2:00am on a pilot basis.

Our goal is to help students plan and implement safe programming that is conducive to the institution's learning environment.

LATE NIGHT PROGRAMMING

Recognized student organizations who would like to sponsor a late night program must plan well in advance, but can get it done in just five easy steps!

1. 30 days in advance, select a facility for your event.
2. Submit a facility reservation if facility is available.
3. Read the Event Planning Document. Complete and submit a Safety Planning Form (SPF) to the Center for Student Life in 303 Pratt Hall or via email at late-night-programs@iup.edu
4. Complete and submit a Late Night Program Proposal form to the Center for Student Life in 303 Pratt Hall or via email at late-night-programs@iup.edu.
5. Now wait to receive confirmation if your proposed program is approved.

Requirements for Late Night Programming:

- Must be a Recognized Student Organization.
