

Act 80 of 2018 Report
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
January 1, 2024
Spring Semester 2019 through Fall Semester 2023

Subject of report	Date of allegation(s)	Description	Date of resolution
Phi Gamma Nu, Business Honors Fraternity	2/14/2023	The University received an anonymous report that Phi Gamma Nu was forcing potential new members to carry rocks, fruits, vegetables, and send daily pictures of outfits as well as perform other daily tasks. The allegations were not corroborated by the investigation.	9/1/2023
Theta Chi Fraternity, Epsilon Eta Chapter	9/12/2022	The University received allegations of hazing which were investigated by the Indiana Borough Police Department, the national Kappa Sigma fraternity, and the University. The allegations were not corroborated by the investigation.	10/1/2022
Kappa Sigma Fraternity, Kappa Theta Chapter	6/29/2022	The University received allegations of hazing. An alleged first-hand witness reported an instance of alleged hazing. Indiana Borough Police were notified as the alleged hazing would have occurred within Indiana Borough. An investigation was conducted. The hazing was not substantiated. An investigation also occurred at the University with the same result. In addition, the national chapter of Kappa Sigma was notified of the allegation, conducted an internal investigation, and was unable to substantiate the allegation.	9/29/2022
Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority, Alpha Gamma Chapter	3/14/2022	The University received allegations of hazing. An anonymous third-party reported an online conversation with a known potential new member of Alpha Sigma Alpha in which it was alleged that hazing was occurring. Indiana Borough Police were notified as the alleged hazing would have occurred within Indiana Borough. An investigation was conducted. The hazing was not substantiated. An investigation also occurred at the University with the same result. In addition, the national chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha was notified of the allegation, conducted an internal investigation, and was unable to substantiate the allegation.	5/3/2022

Act 80 of 2018 Report
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
January 1, 2024
Spring Semester 2019 through Fall Semester 2023

Sigma Pi Fraternity, Theta Epsilon Chapter	3/9/2022	The University received allegations of hazing. A professor noticed suspicious activity in a student and attempted to speak to the student. The student was a known potential new member of Sigma Pi Fraternity. The professor reported the suspected hazing. Indiana Borough Police were notified as the alleged hazing would have occurred within Indiana Borough. An investigation was conducted. The hazing was not substantiated. An investigation also occurred at the University with the same result. In addition, the national chapter of Sigma Pi was notified of the allegation, conducted an internal investigation, and was unable to substantiate the allegation.	5/3/2022
Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, Gamma Nu Chapter	11/21/2019	The University received allegations of hazing. Videos show potential new members crawling along a wet floor in the basement of the Phi Kappa Psi PA Nu house while crowds watched. Result of investigation: IUP Student Organization Review Board hearing found chapter responsible. Penalties imposed: Loss of recognition until September 2024.	10/05/2020
Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity, Beta Gamma Chapter	02/07/2019	The University and Pi Lambda Phi headquarters received allegations of spring 2018 hazing. Videos showed new members being encouraged by active members to drink an unknown concoction and also blindfolded, shirtless new members lined up being verbally and physically threatened. Result of investigation: IUP Recognized Organization Review Board (RORB) hearing found chapter responsible. Penalties imposed: University Recognition indefinitely withdrawn.	02/22/2019