Description of Curriculum Change

1. Catalog Description

SO 363 Sociology of Gender

3c-01-3sh

Prerequisite: SO 151

Explores current perspectives on the situations faced by women and men, primarily in the United States. Examines issues such as the impact of gender on socialization, the construction of knowledge, intimate relationships, paid work, family relationships, health, and issues of change.

2. CURRENT:

SO 363 Sociology of Sex and Gender

PROPOSED:

SO 363 Sociology
of Gender

3. The rationale for this change is that the new course title, "Sociology of Gender," more accurately represents the content of the course since the course focuses on the sociology of gender rather than on sex differences or sexuality. As noted in materials about teaching such courses published by the American Sociological Association, the preferred title for this course shifted from the Sociology of Sex and Gender in the 1980s to the Sociology of Gender in the 1990s.
