Subject: Prerequisites for EL 313

It has come to my attention that there is an error in the IUP 1992-93 catalog in the prerequisites for EL 313 Teaching Mathematics in the Elementary School. The catalog states:

Prerequisite: MA 150, 151, 152 (revision in progress; consult adviser).

I don't have any idea where this came from, but I checked the 1991-92 and 1990-91 catalogs, and it is there, too. At any rate, there is no course MA 150 and there is no revision in progress. The understanding between the Department of Mathematics and the Department of Professional Studies in Education is that the prerequisite for EL 313 is MA 151 and MA 152. We should try to change the catalog to reflect this correction at the earliest possible date.

Part II. Description of Curriculum Change

1. Catalog description

The only component of the catalog description that needs to be revised is the section on prerequisites. EL 313 Teaching Mathematics in the Elementary School is taught by the Mathematics Department which has requested that the currently listed prerequisites be changed. See the attached memo from Dr. Burlok and the summary table.
