

Partnering to Create Conditions for Student Success Featuring Dr. Pat Terenzini*

Friday, March 30, 8:30 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.
Crimson Event Center

The Student Affairs Division and Center for Teaching Excellence are providing a professional development workshop for all members of the university community designed to address the curricular and co-curricular experiences that contribute to student success.

Reservations are not required (but appreciated), and can be made by contacting Sharon Aikins by email at SAikins@iup.edu

Workshop Agenda

8:30 – 9:00 a.m. - Continental breakfast. Tables with resource displays pertaining to student success

9:00 – 9:10 a.m. - Welcome: Dr. David Werner, IUP President

9:10 – 10:00 a.m. – Keynote Address, Dr. Pat Terenzini. Dr. Terenzini will address:

- Current research regarding curricular and co-curricular experiences that contribute to student success
- Common causes of student departure
- Promising practices related to student success
- Effective assessment of student learning and student success.

10:00 - 10:10 a.m. - Break

10:10 – 11:25 a.m. – Small group discussions regarding current IUP practices and additional opportunities related to:

- Academic Affairs & Student Affairs partnerships
- Measuring student learning and student success, and
- Curricular and co-curricular experiences that extend student learning beyond the classroom.

11:30 – 12:00 p.m. – Summary of discussions, comments from Dr. Terenzini, and wrap-up

About the Keynote Speaker

*Dr. Pat Terenzini is a distinguished Professor and Senior Scientist, Emeritus in the Center for the Study of Higher Education at The Pennsylvania State University. Dr. Terenzini is among the most recognized scholars, and most frequently cited authors in the area of higher education research. Additional information on Dr. Terenzini can be obtained at the following link:

<http://www.ed.psu.edu/educ/eps/higher-education/directory/patrick-terenzini>