

Dear colleagues,

Please be aware of the following changes regarding German courses offered at IUP:

- German is going from four 3-credit courses to three 4-credit courses for the Elementary and Intermediate language sequence.
- GRMN 151, 152, 251, and 252 will be phased out as GRMN 101, 102, and 201 are phased in.
- GRMN 151 and 152 formerly comprised the Elementary level sequence, and GRMN 251 and 252 the Intermediate level. GRMN 101 and 102 will replace GRMN 151 and 152 respectively, and GRMN 201 will be the only intermediate level course. It contains content from both GRMN 251 and 252.
- GRMN 151 and 152 will no longer be offered after Fall 2012. Thus, students starting the language without any previous exposure should be advised into GRMN 101. GRMN 102 is intended for students who have already had a year or two of German in high school or a semester at the university level.
- GRMN 251 will no longer be offered after Spring 2013. Students who completed GRMN 151 and 152 but are unable to take GRMN 251 in Spring 2013 should be advised to take GRMN 201 in Fall 2013 or after.
- GRMN 252 will no longer be offered after Fall 2013. Students who complete GRMN 251 in Spring 2013 but are unable to take GRMN 252 in Fall 2013 should be advised to take GRMN 201 in Spring 2014 or after.
- GRMN 101, 102, and 201 will be totally phased in by Spring 2014.

Questions regarding German course offerings may be directed to Dr. Peter Sullivan (psulliv@iup.edu) or Dr. Heide Witthöft (heide@iup.edu).

Thank you.
