Part II. Description of Curriculum Change for INDS 312 Housing and Culture

- 1. A complete catalog description with the new number, title, number of credits, class and lab hour designation*, prerequisites, and an appropriately written course description.

FCSE 312 Housing and Culture

3c-0l-3cr

Managerial, sociological, economic, and aesthetic aspects of housing and people are investigated as well as a consideration of the environment of the home as part of the community.

- 2. A listing of the proposed change(s) giving the old title and number and the new title and number.

Old Title & Number: INDS 312 Housing and Culture

New Title & Number: FCSE 312 Housing and Culture

- 3. Justification/rationale for the change(s).

INDS 312 Housing and Culture is a required course only for FCSE students and is taught by FCSE faculty. The course provides an overview of housing and culture topics FCSE students will be certified to teach in public schools. INDS students do not take the course because the content overlaps specific courses they are required to complete.

Dr. Owens,

This email is in support of moving the Housing & Culture course from a INDS prefix to FCSE prefix. This course was originally developed for Family & Consumer Science majors (formerly Home Economics) but was taught by INDS faculty. In the past few years, the course has been taught by FSCE faculty for FCSE students. It is an "overview" course of housing and culture.

The content is basic information covered in 100 level INDS classes. With INDS curriculum revisions it is no longer appropriate for the INDS program but does cover material necessary for the FCSE Program.
