

Take a summer graduate course with the Department of Foreign Languages at the IUP Monroeville Graduate and Professional Center

SPAN 720: Special Topics in the Teaching of Spanish (3 credits)

Dr. Eileen W. Glisan

Professor of Spanish & Foreign Language Education and Past President of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages glisan@iup.edu

JUNE 17-21, 2013

8:00 am-4:30 pm IUP Graduate and Professional Center

The course will be taught in English and is open to all foreign language instructors

Earn graduate credits that you can use for ACT 48 requirements and Level II Certification or toward the IUP Spanish MA degree

This graduate-level course will be taught as an intensive one-week seminar. The special topic will be "Collaborations in the Target Language Classroom and Communities" and will incorporate the five Cs of the national Standards for Foreign Language Learning in the 21st Century.

-
- For more information about applying, visit <http://www.iup.edu/upper.aspx?id=49789> or contact the Director of Graduate Admissions at Eric.Litzinger@iup.edu.
  - For information on graduate tuition and fees visit <http://www.iup.edu/bursar/tuitionfees/default.aspx>.
  - For information on the Spanish MA visit <http://www.iup.edu/page.aspx?id=107705> or email the Graduate Coordinator Dr. Frank B. Brooks at fbrooks@iup.edu.
  - All course content questions can be sent to Dr. Glisan at glisan@iup.edu