This graduate department offers two master's degree programs. The 60-credit MA degree program in community counseling is designed to prepare students to work in a variety of settings including mental health centers, drug and alcohol treatment programs, specialized community agencies, vocational education or rehabilitation programs, correctional institutions, health care settings, social services, and business and industry. This program is also offered at the IUP Monroeville Graduate and Professional Center.

The MEd program in school counseling certification is designed to prepare elementary and secondary counselors to qualify for institutional and commonwealth certification. The 60-credit competency-based program includes a series of counseling skills courses to individual and group counseling and a field experience under the supervision of a certified school counselor. Those students already possessing a master's degree may apply to the Counseling program for "certification only" status. Refer to the Graduate Catalog for further details.
