

LTC Paul “Tim” Brooks
IO, USA
US Army War College AY14 Student
Carlisle, PA

LTC Paul “Tim” Brooks was born and raised in Syracuse, New York. He received his Bachelors of Arts from the University of Notre Dame in May 1990. In March 2004, he earned a Masters of Science degree in Information Operations from the Naval Post Graduate School in Monterey, California.

In May of 1990 he was commissioned through the Reserve Officer Training Corps program as a 2LT in the Armor Corps and was assigned to Germany where he served as a tank platoon leader, tank company Executive Officer and Headquarters and Headquarters Company Executive Officer with the 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment and the 3rd Infantry Division.

LTC Brooks transitioned to the Military Intelligence Corps in 1994 and was to Fort Campbell, KY where he served in a variety of intelligence positions including Battalion and Brigade intelligence officer as well as Direct Support Military Intelligence Company Commander in the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault). During this tour he deployed to Haiti with the 1st Brigade in 1996 to support of the UN Mission in Haiti. After command LTC Brooks was reassigned to the Battle Command Training Program in Fort Leavenworth, KS, as an intelligence, and later Information Operations (IO), Observer-Trainer where he has the opportunity to work with Army National Guard units throughout the U.S. to develop their staff skills and procedures.

Following his promotion and selection as an IO Officer, he was reassigned to Camp Red Cloud, Korea, as the 2nd Infantry Division’s IO Officer for 15 months. Upon returning from Korea, LTC Brooks was assigned to the 1st Cavalry Division in Ft Hood, TX where he served as the IO Officer for the 3rd “Greywolf” Brigade, the Secretary to the General Staff and the Division IO Officer. While assigned to the division he deployed to Iraq twice from 2006 to 2008 and later from 2009 to 2010. During these deployments he was responsible for coordinating Psychological Operations, Key Leader Engagement, Operations Security, Electronic Warfare and the coordination of these programs with Civil Affairs and Public Affairs activities.

In July 2013 LTC Brooks completed a three year tour as the IO Plans and Policy Lead for the Operations Division, of the NATO International Military Staff. In this role he served as the Secretary for a variety of committees and working groups tasked with developing Alliance policy and doctrine.

LTC Brooks’ awards include the Bronze Star Medal (two), Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (three), Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal (four), Army Achievement Medal (two), and the Combat Action Badge.

LTC Brooks is married to the former Ms. Kimberly Lawrence of New Orleans, Louisiana. They have one daughter, Darby, who is 12 years old.