Business

- The Symposium

- θ April 9, Susquehanna Room
- θ Before the event, there will be an Aramark-catered dinner in the Delaware Room
- θ Along with the event, there will be a meeting of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Association Student Editors Interest Group mixer, so there will be students from across the state at this event.
- θ Scott agreed to work on promos for the TV and radio stations and pitch these to local stations and constructing news release.
- θ More help is welcome for promoting the event and working out logistics.

- Ethics Week

- θ The SPJ gave us a $450 grant to put together a program on ethics in reporting. Our program will be April 24. Panelists will include Eric Ebeling, executive editor of The Indiana Gazette; others TBA, but ideas include editors and producers from Fox-TV in Johnstown and Renda Broadcasting.
- θ Will invite high school students, as well.
- θ Will be held in the afternoon or early evening.

- Indi Week in Review

- First show of the year is 11 a.m. Feb. 3. Our topic is the Kovalchick Convention and Athletic Complex. May focus on environmental issues. Also: sports and local news roundup.
- If you have a question about the topic to be asked on air, send it to:
Email: INDYWEEK@YAHOO DOT COM
Instant Message INDI WEEK AT: IUPRADIO
Be sure to include your full name in your message.

- Next Meeting

- Feb. 5. Same time. Same place.
- Meetings to be held every other Tuesday.

Adjourned: 7 p.m.
