

The Minor in Geology is designed for students who desire a background in Geology, in conjunction with degrees in business or one of the social or physical sciences. The minor consists of eighteen credit hours of introductory and upper-level courses.

Required Introductory Courses:

6 credits total

_____ GEOS 201 Foundations of Geology	4cr
_____ GEOS 202 Quantitative Methods in the Geosciences	2cr

Upper-Level Elective Courses

12 credits total

12 credits from the following list:

GEOS 203 Surficial Geology

Any 300-level GEOS course

Any 400-level GEOS course, except GEOS 470 and 480 (1)

Course	# Credits
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
Total Upper-Level Electives:	_____

(1) Only one Geoscience Field Workshop (including prerequisite Seminar) can be counted toward the minor.