Dr. Imogene Moyer Memorial Scholarship

The department is pleased to announce the Dr. Imogene Moyer Memorial Scholarship. Due to a generous donation from an IUP alumnae, Dr. Ayn Embar-Seddon O'Reilly this $1000 scholarship will be awarded to one female doctoral student who has a demonstrated financial need. Dr. Moyer was a faculty member in IUP's Criminology Department from 1984 through 1998. She was instrumental in the growth and development of the department and its programs, and she is remembered particularly for her mentoring of graduate students and new faculty members. As a scholar, Dr. Moyer is remembered as a pioneer in feminist criminology. She was the author of Criminological Theories: Traditional and Non-Traditional Voices and Themes and The Changing Roles of Women in the Criminal Justice System: Offenders, Victims, and Professionals, as well as numerous journal articles and book chapters. She was the recipient of the 2005 Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Society of Criminology's Division on Women and Crime and was Professor Emerita in the Criminology Department at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.
