

Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Department of Nursing & Allied Health Professions

Dr. Edna B. McKenzie Scholarship for Disadvantaged Students

The PURPOSE of this scholarship is to provide a new source of financial support for disadvantaged students in Pennsylvania who are pursuing a degree in nursing.

APPLICATION

Date Application Received: _____

1. Student Name: _____ Student Birth Date: ____/____/____

2. Present Grade Point Average: _____ Nursing Credits completed: _____

3. Social Security Number: _____ Banner ID Number: _____

Consideration for eligibility to be included in essay are:

- Languages spoken and understood
- English as a Second Language
- Household Income
- Number of family members living in household excluding applicant
- Number of children and their ages
- Student's spouse or partner: working or non-working
- Student responsibilities while enrolled in university, such as, caring for children, jobs and number and type of jobs
- List other extenuating circumstances
- Present Net worth including inheritances, trusts, etc
- Level of education completed by each parent
- Occupation(s) of Mother/Father
- Will you be the first family member in your family or extended family to obtain a college degree?
- I was raised by a single parent or family member
- Type of area or neighborhood or area you grew up in for the most part:
Rural & middle class: ____ Rural & lower socioeconomic status: _____
Urban & middle class: ____ Urban and lower socioeconomic status: _____
- Student has formally served or volunteered to assist underprivileged or underserved populations. List the group you provided the service through, the type of assistance or volunteer work you participated in, and the length of your service in months or years.
- Describe in your own words any substantial economic or educational obstacles you have faced or dealt with.

Selection process: The NAHP Department invites applications. Selection will be made by the Enrollment/Enhancement Committee with the approval of the NAHP Faculty. Selection will be based on the review of the applications. This scholarship is awarded in the fall and is applied towards spring tuition.

Attach a 3-5 page/double spaced (font=Times Roman, 12) essay addressing the above mentioned considerations for eligibility. Include all of those that apply to your situation while attending college.

Application & essay are due on Monday November 30th, 2009 by 12 noon to:

Dr. Julia A. Greenawalt
Department of Nursing & Allied Health Professions
222 Johnson Hall
IUP
Indiana, PA 15705