Part II. Description of Curriculum Change

1. FCSE 450 - Teaching Vocational Family and Consumer Sciences

Credits: 3.00

Emphasis is on teaching vocational family and consumer sciences in consumer/homemaking and occupational family and consumer sciences programs. Federal legislation impacting on family and consumer sciences is analyzed for use in program decisions. Emphasis is given to program development using CBVE model, development of individual learning packets, vocational youth organizations, advisory committees, family and consumer sciences and vocational educational priorities, professional organizations, proposal development for funding, impact on public policy, marketing family and consumer sciences, and development of a personal philosophy of family and consumer sciences education.

Lecture: 3.00

Pre-requisites: ( FCSE 350 Minimum Grade: C)

2. List of associated course changes

1) PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION COMPONENT

Course name change from FCSE 450 Teaching Vocational Home Economics to FCSE 450 Teaching Vocational Family and Consumer Sciences

2. Justification/Rationale for Revision

The original proposal to replace the name "Home Economics" with "Family and Consumer Sciences" was approved by the Senate during the 1998-99 academic year. There was an oversight for the course "FCSE 450 Teaching Vocational Home Economics". Because of this oversight, the course name was not changed.
