Part IV. COURSE PROPOSALS*C. Deleted courses

1. CS121 Introduction to Consumer Services
  - b. Description of Curriculum Change

- 1) CS121 Introduction to Consumer Services is being deleted as a major requirement in the Fashion Merchandising program.
- 2) CS121 Introduction to Consumer Services was an orientation course presenting an overview of career possibilities for Consumer Services majors. As a result of the merger of the two departments, Home Economics Education and Consumer Services, this orientation course for CS majors is no longer relevant in the combined department. The Fashion Merchandising component of the course, careers is now being included in revised FM110 Introduction to Fashion.
- 3) There is no anticipated effect on existing courses or programs.
- 4) After the Fashion Merchandising Program Revision has been approved by Senate students will be given the option of following those requirements that are in effect when the student first enrolled in the program or those in effect at the time of expected graduation.

Part V. Letters of Support

No letter is attached. The former Consumer Services Department approved the deletion of CS121 Introduction to Consumer Services for the three majors, Consumer Affairs, Fashion Merchandising, and Interior Design on 4/13/94.
