Part II. Description of Curriculum Change

1) New catalog descriptions.

GE 281 Special Topics

3c-01-3sh

Prerequisite: As appropriate to course content

Special topics are offered on an experimental or temporary basis to explore topics that are not included in the established curriculum. A given topic may be offered under any special topic identity no more than three times. Special topics numbered 281 are offered primarily for lower-level undergraduate students. (May also be offered as RP 281; may not be taken for duplicate credit under same title.)

RP 281 Special Topics

3c-01-3sh

Prerequisite: As appropriate to course content

Special topics are offered on an experimental or temporary basis to explore topics that are not included in the established curriculum. A given topic may be offered under any special topic identity no more than three times. Special topics numbered 281 are offered primarily for lower-level undergraduate students. (May also be offered as GE 281; may not be taken for duplicate credit under same title.)

2) This course is to be cross listed in both Geography as GE 281 Special Topics and in Regional Planning as RP 281 Special Topics.

Old Catalog Description:

GE 281 Special Topics

3c-01-3sh

Prerequisite: As appropriate to course content

Special topics are offered on an experimental or temporary basis to explore topics that are not included in the established curriculum. A given topic may be offered under any special topic identity no more than three times. Special topics numbered 281 are offered primarily for lower-level undergraduate students.

3) Justification.

This change will support curricular flexibility by clearly identifying Regional Planning as a separate major, will improve graduation check out, and will move us toward our goal of program accreditation.
