Part II. Description of Curriculum Change

1. To change the name for FN 110, Introduction to Nutrition and Dietetics to Careers in Food and Nutrition. The course description will remain the same. The name and course description appear on the attached page 3.
2. Old name: FN 110, Introduction to Nutrition and Dietetics
New name: FN 110, Careers in Food and Nutrition
3. The rationale for this request follows. This one credit course is intended for majors in the Department of Food and Nutrition. It accomplishes what the course description states. However, because it is a one credit course, it attracts students who are looking only for one credit, and also is confused with the Liberal Studies elective, FN 145 Introduction to Nutrition. This situation has created a problem for both students and faculty as the course closes eliminating seats for the Department majors.

Part III. No other departments are affected; no letters of support were requested.

Part IV. Curricular Offering/Change Authorization Form is attached on page 4.
