

Liberal Studies Committee Minutes
September 20, 2007
3:30 pm
Clark Hall 317

Present: M. Sadler, G. Wilson, T. Wacker, F. Slack, C. Zoni, M Swinker, Y. Asamoah,
M.Hildebrandt, E. Auvil, S. Reid, M. Browne

Excused: Dr. David Pistole

The minutes from the August 30 meeting were approved on a Wilson/Zoni motion.

New members were introduced and welcomed: M.Hildebrandt, Sociology department, E. Auvil, S. Reid, M. Browne. Dr. David Pistole, Biology, has agreed to serve as the NSM representative, but was not notified of his appointment in time to make the meeting today . Distributed LS handbooks and explained the role of the committee and member responsibilities.

Sadler reported on changes to the curriculum process that will route all curriculum proposals to the APSCUF Representative Council for action before being forwarded the University Senate.

Sadler reported on the status of the LS revision subcommittees, their role and their relationship to the Liberal Studies Revision Committee and the Liberal Studies Committee.

Sadler reported on the meeting regarding the articulation agreement with CCAC. As an outcome of the meeting, an agreement was made between NSM and the credit transfer office to allow CJC 201 Introduction to Criminalistics to count as a non-lab science in the proposed articulation agreement between CCAC and IUP for the Criminal Justice program.

The LSC will continue to meet in Clark Hall 317 until the meeting room in Stapleton Library is ready to use.

On a Wilson/Swinker motion the meeting adjourned at 4:15.