Part II.1 Description of Curriculum Change

I. Catalog Description

INDS 464 Commercial Design Studio I

1 class hour
3 lab hours
3 credits
(1c-3l-3cr)

Prerequisite: INDS 315

Applies interior design space planning and design problem-solving processes to nonresidential design and links goals in interior design and facility management.

Course outcomes:

- Predict behavior responses to physical attributes of non-residential spaces considering knowledge of human factors, proxemics, anthropometrics, and psychology.
- Analyze needs and requirements by interviewing, observing, and surveying owners and occupants, and state design problems in a program.
- Evaluate non-residential design programs, and synthesize space planning and interior design solutions by applying graphic standard and design theory to interpretations of needs and requirements.
- Utilize drafting, model making, color media, and computer aided drafting and design (CADD) to communicate contract design solutions visually.
- Demonstrate effective oral presentation skills.
- Apply principles of building structure, construction, building systems, and energy conservation to developing designs.
- Solve contract design problems confronting special populations, including physically challenged persons, the elderly, and others.
- Demonstrate ability to select, coordinate, and place contract furniture, fixtures, equipment (FF&E), materials, finishes, art, and accessories in space plans.
- Interpret and apply laws, codes, standards and ordinances in relation to non-residential health, safety, and welfare needs and requirements.
- Describe environmental considerations influenced by organizational structure and facility management concerns.
