I. New Catalogue Number/Name

PHIL 100 Introduction to Philosophy

3 class hours, 0 lab hours, 3 credits
(3c- 0l-3cr)

Prerequisites: None

Acquaints the beginning student with philosophical problems and methods. Possible topics include the existence of God, human freedom, the scope and limits of human knowledge, the nature of mind, the nature of morality, and the relationship between the individual and the state.

II. Proposed Changes

Old Number/Title: PHIL 120 Introduction to Philosophy

The number of this course is being changed.

III. Rationale

We would like our Introduction to Philosophy course to be the lowest numbered course in our listings. As the number "101" is being used by another course we are changing this course number to PHIL 100.

Note: According to the Registrar's Office (Marcy Rearick), PHIL 100 is mistakenly still listed as an unavaible course. But it has been over 10 years since this course number has been used, and thus this course number is in fact available. In email correspondence we were told, "This course number may be re-used since it has not been offered in over 10 years." (April 12, 2012 email from Marcy Rearick).

The COSMOS Master Course History shows the following entry.

COSMOS Master Course History

Course	Subject	Course Title
---------------	----------------	---------------------

PHIL 100	INTRO TO RELIGION (3cr)	Last Term Offered 198440
----------	-------------------------	--------------------------

In accordance with the requisite policy we are simultaneously submitting a proposal to discontinue/delete the original course number and title.
