Hello, David.

My reply is much delayed. The Philosophy faculty have recently made final decisions on program revision and curricular innovation, and until we decided several questions, I wasn't able to reply. But now I can tell you all the following.

PHIL 221 We plan to remove this course from the LS PHIL/RLST Core list, and we hope to replace it with a new course, PHIL 240 (Virtue, Wisdom, and the Good Life) below.

PHIL 232, 324: We've proposed these courses as Global Citizenship electives (both proposals also include course title changes). These were approved (w/revisions) at the recent meeting of the CHSS chairs, and I've yet to submit them to you.

PHIL 110, 321, 325, 326, 420, 421, 460: We don't plan to submit these courses as LS electives. We intend that they be removed from the list of LS Electives.

PHIL 400, 405, 410: We plan to delete these courses from the catalog.

We have a new course proposal in the pipeline, PHIL 270: Ethics and the Environment, which we've proposed as a Global Citizenship elective. This proposal was also approved at a recent CHSS chairs meeting and I've yet to submit it to LS.

We're also planning to submit a number of new course proposals early next semester, some of which may be proposed as LS electives.

If all proposals are approved, that would find us with the following courses as LS Electives:

PHIL 270 Ethics and the Environment
PHIL 324 Ancient Greek Philosophy
PHIL 232 Philosophies of Love
PHIL 330 Philosophy of Science
PHIL 323 Political Philosophy
PHIL 450 Philosophy of Law

Mary, as you know, we are in the final year of our implementation of the new Liberal Studies (LS) Curriculum. All LS courses in the Undergraduate Catalog have to be revised by the end of this year to continue to be offered for LS credit in fall 2014. To that end, I have attached a spreadsheet of the Liberal Studies Courses from your department that have not been received by the LS office or which were received but not approved (awaiting revisions). Please check the list to see if they agree with your records.

The spreadsheet has six columns - College - Department - Course - LS Designation (elective, fine arts, etc.) - LS received (yes or no) - Date Revisions Requested (if it was received but returned). If we have received a course and passed it on to the UWUCC/Senate it will not be on the list.

In an effort to more accurately reflect LS offerings in the Undergraduate Catalog we would appreciate letting us, with a copy to your Dean, know your plans for each of the listed courses.

As always, let me know if there is any way that I can help or if you have any questions.
David
