Mad'moiselle creates a world that explores iconic male/female images and gender identity in Latin American cultures. Through rich imagery and theatrical satire, Annabelle Lopez Ochoa weaves a tongue-in-cheek look at the Marias in all our lives.

Mad'moiselle was commissioned, in part, by The Surdna Foundation. The music for Mad'moiselle is by arrangement with Boosey & Hawkes, Inc., Sole Agent for Leonard Bernstein Music Publishing Company LLC, publisher and copyright owner.

The program order, notes, and biographies have been provided, unedited, by the company.

WHO'S WHO IN THE COMPANY

EDUARDO VILARO, a first generation Cuban-American, began as artistic director of Ballet Hispanico in August of 2009, becoming only the second person to head the company since it was founded in 1970. Mr. Vilaro has been part of the Ballet Hispanico family since 1985. As a dancer with the Ballet Hispanico Company, he performed throughout the U.S., Latin America and Europe and assisted founder Tina Ramirez with the development of dance education residencies.

Mr.Vilaro's passion for dance and Latino cultures began in the Southwest Bronx, where a role in a school musical ignited his journey. After training throughout New York City in dance institutions such as the Alvin Ailey American Dance Center and the Martha Graham School, Mr.Vilaro received a BFA in dance at Adelphi University under the direction of Norman Walker. In 1999, he received an M.A. in Interdisciplinary Arts from Columbia College Chicago and was a recipient of their Albert P.Weissman Award.

Upon his graduation from Columbia College, Mr.Vilaro founded Luna Negra Dance Theater in Chicago, a company which served as a springboard for Latino dance throughout the Midwest. Under his ten-year artistic direction, Luna Negra amassed a distinguished repertory of works by Latino choreographers such as Ron De Jesús, Vicente Nebrada, and Gustavo Ramírez Sansano.

Mr. Vilaro's own choreography is devoted to capturing the spiritual, sensual and historical essence of the Latino cultures. He created over 20 ballets for Luna Negra and has received commissions from the Ravinia Festival, the Chicago Sinfonietta, the Grant Park Festival, the Lexington Ballet and the Chicago Symphony. He has collaborated with major dance and design artists as well as musicians such as Paquito D'Rivera, Susana Baca, Luciana Souza, and Tiempo Libre. In 2001 he was a recipient of a Ruth Page Award for choreography, and in 2003 he was honored for his choreographic work at Panama's II International Festival of Ballet. In 2011, Mr. Vilaro premiered Asuka, his first work for Ballet Hispanico, "an unexpected interpretation of [Celia] Cruz's music...high-energy and colorful" (Chicago Dance Digest).

Mr.Vilaro was an associate professor at the Dance Center of Columbia College and has served on the board of directors of Dance/USA. He has also served on panels for the National Endowment for the Arts and the New York State Council on the Arts. He was a guest speaker at the Salzburg Global Forum for Young Cultural Leaders and the National Association for Latino Arts and Culture, and continues to speak to the growing need for cultural diversity and dance education.

LAUREN ALZAMORA graduated from UNC School of the Arts in 2001. She has danced for Aspen Santa Fe Ballet, Eliot Feld's Ballet Tech and Battery Dance Company in New York. Lauren has also collaborated with New York-based dance photographer Howard Schatz on several projects, including underwater dance photography. She is a fully certified Pilates instructor and enjoys teaching private clients as well as her fellow company members.

CHRISTOPHER BLOOM is from Middletown.VA where he started training at the Vostrikov's Academy of Ballet at the age of 15. Christopher trained as a scholarship student at the Ballet and Contemporary Dance Programs in the School at Jacob's Pillow under Anna-Marie Holmes and Milton Myers. He holds a B.F.A. from The Ailey/Fordham BFA Dance program where he had the opportunity to perform works by Sidra Bell, Francesca Harper, Camille A. Brown, Jennifer Muller, Paul Taylor and Alvin Ailey. He has performed professionally with 360° Dance Company, Thang Dao Dance Company, Von Ussar Dance-Works, Parsons Dance, The Peridance Contemporary Dance Company, and with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater.

MARTINA CALCAGNO began dancing in her native Italy, where she studied ballet in Sicily and Rome. She moved to London to train at the Elmhurst School for Dance. In London, she performed with the Birmingham Royal Ballet and toured throughout the United Kingdom and China. Martina has danced around the world, performing with Compagnia DanzItalia, Narciso Dance Company and BHdos.

JAMAL RASHANN CALLEN-

DER began dancing at Ballet Tech in New York City. He attended the Professional Performing Arts School/The Ailey School under the late Denise Jefferson, while dancing at The Restoration Dance Theatre and the Harlem School of the Arts. Jamal also attended Perry-Mansfield and Springboard Danse Montreal. He graduated from The Juilliard School under Lawrence Rhodes, and has worked with The Atlanta Ballet, Peridance Ensemble, Buglisi Dance Theater, Formal Structure Inc., and Hubbard Street 2. Jamal is a recipient of the 2012 Princess Grace Dance: Performance Fellowship.

ALEXANDER DUVAL began his dance career at Teatro Popular Danzante under the direction of Professor Nereida Rodríguez. He received a scholarship to study classical ballet at Ballet Alina Abreu, and he later joined Ballet Folklórico Nacional as a soloist. In 2011, he joined Ballet Nacional Dominicano. He has danced various leading roles in neo-classical works and has performed in many international festivals around the world, including Venezuela, Haiti and Martinique.

MARIO ISMAEL ESPINOZA was born in Tijuana, Mexico. He graduated from the University of California in Irvine, where he performed with Donald McKayle's étude Ensemble. Mario since then has performed with Odyssey Dance Theatre in Salt Lake City, Utah; Company C Contemporary Ballet, Man Dance San Francisco, Peninsula Ballet, Liss Fain Dance and ODC Dance in San Francisco. California.

CAYETANO SOTO (Choreographer), originally from Spain, studied dance at the Institut del Teatre in Barcelona and the Royal Conservatory of The Hague. Soto danced with IT Dansa and Ballet Theater Munich, where he created Fugaz, his first signature work. He has choreographed for companies such as Stuttgarter Ballet, the Royal Ballet of Flanders, and Northwest Dance Project, among others. Fascinated by the fashion label Talbot Runhof, Soto has collaborated with the designers for the costume design of Carmen at Dortmund Ballet and Sortijas for Ballet Hispanico. In 2006, he won first prize in the "Uncontainable Project" choreographic competition of the Royal Ballet of Flanders, and he was nominated in 2011 for the Golden Mask Award in Russia. Cayetano Soto is based in Munich, Germany.

EDGAR ZENDEJAS (Choreographer), originally from Mexico, began his interpretive career in Chicago where he performed with Hubbard Street Dance Chicago and Giordano Jazz Dance. In the early nineties, Edgar joined Les Ballets lazz de Montreal, now BIM Danse, where he found himself evolving as an artist and choreographer. After the successful premiere of Zendejas's first work, "Breve Enlace," Louis Robitaille, artistic director of BIM, promoted Edgar to associate choreographer which led to choreographic commissions in Mexico and the United States, most notably from Jacob's Pillow; Cedar Lake Contemporary Ballet; DanceWorks Chicago; Luna Negra Dance Theater; and Ballet de Monterrey, Mexico. Zendejas won the Hubbard Street 2 National Choreographic Competition in 2010, competed as a finalist for the Milwaukee Ballet's choreographic competition "Genesis" in 2011, and won the Outstanding Choreographer Award from Youth American Grand Prix in 2012. In lanuary 2006 he co-founded ezdanza along with Julien Gagnon and Neelanthi Vadivel. Since then the company has evolved as an open space focused on research, creation and dissemination.

MICHELLE MANZANALES (Rehearsal Director) is a choreographer and dance educator originally from Houston, TX. She began working with Eduardo Vilaro in 2003 as a dancer for his company Luna Negra Dance Theater of Chicago, where she later became Rehearsal Director in 2006 and served as Interim Artistic Director 2009-2010. In 2007, Manzanales created Sugar in the Raw (Azucar Cruda) for LNDT which was applauded by the Chicago Sun-Times as "a staggering, beautiful, accomplished new work." In 2010, her homage to Frida Kahlo, Paloma Querida, was hailed as a "visual masterpiece" by Lucia Mauro of the Chicago Tribune and was described by the Sun-Times as a "gorgeously designed, richly hallucinatory, multi-faceted vision of the artist...". Her choreography has also been presented by Texas Contemporary Weekend, Spring to Dance (St. Louis, MO), Fort Worth Dance Festival, and Festival de Danza Córdoba (Veracruz, Mexico), and honored by the American College Dance Festival on four separate occasions.

DIANA RUETTIGER (Costume Designer) has served as wardrobe supervisor for Luna Negra Dance Theater and Costume Designer for Dance for Life Chicago, Columbia College, and The Chicago Academy for the Arts. She has worked as stitcher and crew for the Joffrey Ballet and numerous Broadway touring shows. Ms. Ruettiger owned and operated a costume shop for 25 years before moving to New York to begin her tenure as Wardrobe Supervisor with Ballet Hispanico.

JOSHUA PRESTON (Production Manager, Lighting Designer) hails from the verdant hills of central Kentucky. As a designer he has lit all kinds of plays, operas, buildings, trees, humans and dancing humans most of all. There are few things that bring Mr. Preston more joy than lighting stuff and things. Josh went to school in sunny Chicago where he met the intrepid Mr. Eduardo Vilaro and the journey has not stopped since. Josh is eternally grateful to have worked as Technical Director for Luna Negra Dance Theater and equally appreciative to serve as Production Manager with Ballet Hispanico.

NATHAN K. CLAUS (Stage Manager) has served as stage manager for Jennifer Muller's The Works both domestically and internationally. He has worked on Broadway with the productions of Priscilla Queen of the Desert, God of Carnage, The Norman Conquests and November. Hailing from Fargo, North Dakota, Nathan began studying ballet at Dancenter North in Libertyville, IL before obtaining a B.A. in Theatre from Millikin University in Decatur, IL, where he also studied dance, music, and education.

TINA RAMIREZ (Founder) founded Ballet Hispanico in 1970 and served as Artistic Director until 2009. Under her direction, over 45 choreographers created works for the Company, many of international stature and others in the early stages of their career. Ms. Ramirez was born in Venezuela, the daughter of a Mexican bullfighter and grandniece to a Puerto Rican educator. Her performing career included international touring with the Federico Rey Dance Company, the inaugural Festival of Two Worlds in Italy with John Butler, the Broadway productions of Kismet and Lute Song and the television adaptation of Man of La Mancha. In addition to the National Medal of Arts, Ms. Ramirez has received countless awards and honors in recognition of her work, including the Dance Magazine Award, the Hispanic Heritage Award for Education, Capezio Dance Award, NYS Governor's Arts Award, and the NYC Mayor's Award of Honor for Arts & Culture.
