

Graduate Assistantship Opportunities

The African American Cultural Center
Indiana University of Pennsylvania

A presentation to the Graduate Student Coordinators
Wednesday, October 15, 2014
Hadley Union Building

Challenges of the 21st Century Student *

1. Teamwork
2. Ethical Judgment
3. Intercultural Skills
4. Social Responsibility
5. Quantitative Reasoning
6. Oral Communication
7. Self-Knowledge
8. Adaptability
9. Critical Thinking
10. Writing
11. Self-direction
12. Global Knowledge

*Based on research conducted by Hart Research & Associates and sanctioned by the American Association of Colleges and Universities (AAC&U, 2007, p. 3)

Student Needs Today

New forms of active and engaged learning – practices that ask students to apply their learning to complex, unscripted problems and projects that can result in higher levels of achievements and benefits, especially for minority and low-income students” which for contemporary students, include “the use of effective and engaging educational practices” (AAC&U 2007).