FACTS ABOUT IUP

IUP has a diverse, vibrant, research-based, and student-centered community comprising distinguished faculty members and undergraduate and graduate students from across the nation and around the world. The opportunities IUP offers its students enable them to find success in college and beyond.

Name: Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP)
Affiliation: One of the largest of the 14 universities in Pennsylvania’s State System of Higher Education
Character: IUP is one of four public, doctoral research universities in Pennsylvania.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

OUR PEOPLE

President
Michael A. Driscoll (PhD, Michigan State University)

Faculty and Staff (FALL 2017)
721 faculty members
738 administration and staff members

Students (FALL 2017)
12,316—42 percent male; 58 percent female;
10,143 undergraduate
2,173 graduate
246 clock-hour
3,444 minority (28 percent)
809 international (7 percent). Students come to IUP from 44 states, two US territories, the District of Columbia, and 58 countries around the world.

Enrollment by college (FALL 2017)
Eberly College of Business and Information Technology
1,994 undergraduate; 273 graduate
College of Education and Communications
1,133 undergraduate; 675 graduate
College of Fine Arts
424 undergraduate; 53 graduate
College of Health and Human Services
3,598 undergraduate; 511 graduate
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
953 undergraduate; 453 graduate
College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics
1,835 undergraduate; 148 graduate
Academic Affairs/Continuing Education
206 undergraduate; 60 graduate

Degrees awarded (2016-2017)
2,270 bachelor’s degrees
663 master’s degrees
124 doctorates

Alumni
132,681 (with undergraduate degrees)
14,185 (with graduate degrees only)
Alumni live in every state and in roughly 90 countries around the world. They have included university presidents and state system chancellors, chief executives of leading companies and industries, playwrights and authors, and luminaries of the sports world.

Degree programs
More than 140 undergraduate programs
55 master’s programs
14 doctoral programs

Accreditations
IUP is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, 267-284-5000. Details of program accreditations are at www.iup.edu/academicaffairs/accreditations.

Associated Organizations
IUP Council of Trustees, Samuel Smith, chair
Foundation for IUP, Richard Caruso ’83, president, Board of Directors
IUP Alumni Association, John Ninosky ’93, president, Board of Directors

FACTS ABOUT IUP

IUP has a diverse, vibrant, research-based, and student-centered community comprising distinguished faculty members and undergraduate and graduate students from across the nation and around the world. The opportunities IUP offers its students enable them to find success in college and beyond.

Name: Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP)
Affiliation: One of the largest of the 14 universities in Pennsylvania’s State System of Higher Education
Character: IUP is one of four public, doctoral research universities in Pennsylvania.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

OUR PEOPLE

President
Michael A. Driscoll (PhD, Michigan State University)

Faculty and Staff (FALL 2017)
721 faculty members
738 administration and staff members

Students (FALL 2017)
12,316—42 percent male; 58 percent female;
10,143 undergraduate
2,173 graduate
246 clock-hour
3,444 minority (28 percent)
809 international (7 percent). Students come to IUP from 44 states, two US territories, the District of Columbia, and 58 countries around the world.

Enrollment by college (FALL 2017)
Eberly College of Business and Information Technology
1,994 undergraduate; 273 graduate
College of Education and Communications
1,133 undergraduate; 675 graduate
College of Fine Arts
424 undergraduate; 53 graduate
College of Health and Human Services
3,598 undergraduate; 511 graduate
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
953 undergraduate; 453 graduate
College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics
1,835 undergraduate; 148 graduate
Academic Affairs/Continuing Education
206 undergraduate; 60 graduate

Degrees awarded (2016-2017)
2,270 bachelor’s degrees
663 master’s degrees
124 doctorates

Alumni
132,681 (with undergraduate degrees)
14,185 (with graduate degrees only)
Alumni live in every state and in roughly 90 countries around the world. They have included university presidents and state system chancellors, chief executives of leading companies and industries, playwrights and authors, and luminaries of the sports world.

Degree programs
More than 140 undergraduate programs
55 master’s programs
14 doctoral programs

Accreditations
IUP is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, 267-284-5000. Details of program accreditations are at www.iup.edu/academicaffairs/accreditations.

Associated Organizations
IUP Council of Trustees, Samuel Smith, chair
Foundation for IUP, Richard Caruso ’83, president, Board of Directors
IUP Alumni Association, John Ninosky ’93, president, Board of Directors

FACTS ABOUT IUP

IUP has a diverse, vibrant, research-based, and student-centered community comprising distinguished faculty members and undergraduate and graduate students from across the nation and around the world. The opportunities IUP offers its students enable them to find success in college and beyond.

Name: Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP)
Affiliation: One of the largest of the 14 universities in Pennsylvania’s State System of Higher Education
Character: IUP is one of four public, doctoral research universities in Pennsylvania.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

OUR PEOPLE

President
Michael A. Driscoll (PhD, Michigan State University)

Faculty and Staff (FALL 2017)
721 faculty members
738 administration and staff members

Students (FALL 2017)
12,316—42 percent male; 58 percent female;
10,143 undergraduate
2,173 graduate
246 clock-hour
3,444 minority (28 percent)
809 international (7 percent). Students come to IUP from 44 states, two US territories, the District of Columbia, and 58 countries around the world.

Enrollment by college (FALL 2017)
Eberly College of Business and Information Technology
1,994 undergraduate; 273 graduate
College of Education and Communications
1,133 undergraduate; 675 graduate
College of Fine Arts
424 undergraduate; 53 graduate
College of Health and Human Services
3,598 undergraduate; 511 graduate
College of Humanities and Social Sciences
953 undergraduate; 453 graduate
College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics
1,835 undergraduate; 148 graduate
Academic Affairs/Continuing Education
206 undergraduate; 60 graduate

Degrees awarded (2016-2017)
2,270 bachelor’s degrees
663 master’s degrees
124 doctorates

Alumni
132,681 (with undergraduate degrees)
14,185 (with graduate degrees only)
Alumni live in every state and in roughly 90 countries around the world. They have included university presidents and state system chancellors, chief executives of leading companies and industries, playwrights and authors, and luminaries of the sports world.

Degree programs
More than 140 undergraduate programs
55 master’s programs
14 doctoral programs

Accreditations
IUP is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, 267-284-5000. Details of program accreditations are at www.iup.edu/academicaffairs/accreditations.

Associated Organizations
IUP Council of Trustees, Samuel Smith, chair
Foundation for IUP, Richard Caruso ’83, president, Board of Directors
IUP Alumni Association, John Ninosky ’93, president, Board of Directors
OUR PLACES

Indiana Campus
From 12 acres and one building in 1875, the Indiana campus has grown to 374 acres and 65 major buildings. In four years, IUP replaced nearly a dozen residential buildings, transforming the campus’s living-learning environment. The new suite-style buildings opened between 2007 and 2010.

The IUP Student Cooperative Association not only owns and operates the Hadley complex, adjacent to the campus, but also owns and maintains a 280-acre outdoor recreational park a short distance away.

Punxsutawney
Facilities on eight acres in Jefferson County and in downtown Punxsutawney provide a unique academic and residential experience; Punxsutawney is also the home of the IUP Academy of Culinary Arts.

Northpointe
Facilities in Armstrong County serve as a regional educational resource, providing undergraduate, graduate, and noncredit programs.

Monroeville
A graduate and professional center in Allegheny County provides courses at convenient times in a convenient location. Courses are also offered at the State System’s Dixon Center in Harrisburg and through distance education.

OUR ADVANTAGES

Student/Faculty Ratio
16 to 1. Nearly all classes are taught by faculty members, as opposed to graduate assistants.

Varsity Sports
Seven for men; 10 for women. Intramurals and club sports are also popular.

Student Organizations
More than 250 formal organizations are recognized, including 32 fraternities and sororities. The Student Cooperative Association operates and sponsors a variety of activities.

Recent Accolades

Prizewinners
IUP professors have won more than 60 Fulbright scholarships, and students have won 12 Fulbright awards, eight Barry M. Goldwater Scholarships, 16 Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarships, and 12 Freeman-Asia study abroad awards. IUP also has had the No. 1 ROTC cadet in the nation, the Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher Educator of the Year, two Rome Prize winners, four professors in Princeton Review’s The Best 300 Professors, and a top-10 professor on RateMyProfessors.com. IUP’s ROTC program has won the MacArthur Award.

OUR DETAILS

Tuition
For 2017-18 academic year (not including housing, dining, or required fees):
$9,000—undergraduate, in state (15 credits per semester, 30 credits per year)
$500 per credit—graduate (in state)

Financial Aid Awarded
For 2016-17 academic year, amount awarded: $184,378,995
Average award: $15,963
Students receiving aid: 11,550

University Operating Budget
$287,000,000 (2017-18)

Value, University and Foundation for IUP Endowments
$73,335,299 as of February 2018

June 30, 2018