

Spring
2020

The 6 'CLOCK Series

HUB OHIO ROOM | 6:00-7:30 P.M.

02/10

Business Attire Fashion Show

Are you getting ready to interview for an internship or full-time job? Or maybe you are thinking about attending a networking event? Still not sure what business casual really means? Whatever the occasion or event might be, understanding professional attire and how to present yourself is key to making a great first impression! Join us and JCPenney as we demonstrate what to wear and what not to wear in these professional settings.

02/17

In Fisher
Auditorium

Respect: Aretha Franklin's Musical Civil Rights Journey

This program takes a captivating journey through Franklin's life, highlighting her commitment to fairness and equality. From her upbringing in the church with her father, a Baptist minister and a civil-rights activist, to her tour with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. as a teenager and beyond. Listen and feel the power of her music as an ensemble of performers sings stirring renditions of Franklin's most iconic songs.

02/24

Documentary Screening: "Quarter Life Crisis"

Plagued with anxiety, depression, and suicide, young people today are growing up in a constantly changing world that's becoming increasingly unadaptable. "Quarter Life Crisis" searches to discover the causes and dispel the myths of modern society's hardships, including misguided parenting, endless comparisons of lives over social media, and established institutions no longer guaranteeing happiness and prosperity.

03/02

You Count! The Importance of the 2020 Decennial Census

A panel of local official and Census representatives will discuss how the 2020 Census will impact students and the community. They will present an overview of the Census, how numbers impact representation in legislature and distribution of funding, the Indiana County 2020 Complete Count Committee, and why students need to be counted at their school address. The panel will advise students on the various ways students can self-respond.

03/16

"Escalation" Film by OneLove Foundation

Love is sweet...until it isn't. "Escalation" is a film that honestly and compellingly tells the story of an abusive relationship—from its sweet beginnings to the tragic end. The authentic depiction of unhealthy behavior escalating into violence helps you understand and recognize the early signs of relationship abuse. After, you can take away information on how to have a healthy relationship and how to safely get out of an abusive one.

03/23

Medicare for All

With the upcoming presidential elections, there has been a lot of information and disinformation about healthcare and various plans. This program will provide a comprehensive overview of the idea of "Medicare for all" and its potential benefits.

03/30

Designing Tomorrow: Crafting a Life, Career, and Purpose

We all know people who complain about their jobs or who don't like their work and career. It's not supposed to be like that, and it's partially in your hands. What if you learned more about yourself and then used that knowledge to design adaptable plans for a life of impact and meaning? Let's actually plan to live joyfully and purposefully! Join us and guest Dr. John Rindy to get a head start on designing your dream life and career.

04/06

Exploring Excellence Beyond the Academics: Stand Out from Your Peers!

This program will bring together current applicants, past applicants, and representatives to discuss opportunities beyond the classroom, including Fullbright, Freeman Asia, Gilman, and the Critical Language Scholarship. Participants will discuss what it takes, who can apply, how to get started, and how to get funded. Think this isn't for you? Think again...come see how you can achieve greatness and stand out from your peers.

04/13

The Long Road to Immigration

Most people who come to the United States using an immigrant visa receive one of the following types: family based or employment based. There is also another way to seek an immigrant visa through the Diversity Visa Lottery program. This panel presentation will feature speakers from many different paths to immigration who have different types of visa permits and how that has affected their immigration process.

04/20

Labor and Immigration

What do you know about labor and immigration? How are they related? How do new immigrants affect the US labor market? Get educated about one of the key issues for the November 2020 presidential elections by coming to this program to learn about the current labor and immigration policy and its history.

04/27

Bridges to Peace Presented by Rana Sodhi

On September 15, 2001, Balbir Singh Sodhi, a Sikh man, was killed outside of his gas station in Arizona by a man who assumed he was Muslim because of his beard and turban. This was the first hate crime murder following the terrorist attacks. Balbir's brother, Rana Singh Sodhi, will present at this program about Sikh culture and religion, along with his family's story about his brother's murder, and his campaign for peace and forgiveness.

For a full list of sponsors, please visit your website: IUP.edu/sixoclockseries
Center for Multicultural Student Leadership and Engagement | MCSLE | @IUP_MCSLE