

SIDE LETTER AGREEMENT

SUMMER SATURDAY EXECUTIVE MBA

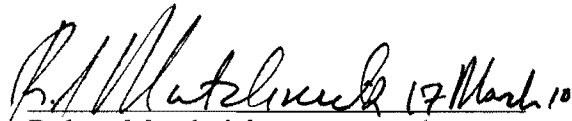

The Fall/Spring Executive MBA program follows the approved University calendar including starting dates, breaks, and ending dates for graduate courses. For faculty members and students who participate in 13-week Saturday Executive MBA courses during the summer, the courses will begin no earlier than the Saturday of Commencement weekend. The end of the summer Executive MBA program shall not extend beyond the Saturday of the last week of the IUP summer school calendar. A faculty member teaching courses in the Summer Saturday Executive MBA program will be paid in accordance with Article 27 provisions in the CBA, except that the minimum pay will be at his/her overload rate regardless of enrollment in his/her course.

Except for the specific commitments made in the Agreement, this Agreement is without precedent or prejudice to the rights of any of the parties.
