Here are your long-awaited minutes. Also attached is a tee-shirt design. Please take a look.

On Friday, there will be a high school journalism program in the HUB. If you have time between 10-11 a.m. please consider sitting at the SPJ table to give out info.

Also, we're going to have a bake sale in the Oak Grove on Halloween. Please donate food or sit at the table and take "donations." It should be fun.

Have a great homecoming. Be careful.

- Liz

Business

- High School Journalism Workshop
  - θ The Indiana Gazette's putting on a workshop for high school journalists from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the HUB atrium Friday. There's going to be an SPJ table there. Three members agreed to sit at the table.
  - θ Sara Lamberson: 8:30-10 a.m.
  - θ Anna Goth: 8:30- 10 a.m.
  - θ Kelly Andrews: 11:15-12:30
- Committee Reports
  - Finance and Fundraising – Shirts: Kaitlyn has a design idea sent out with the minutes. Should we do SPJ shirts for us and also general journalism shirts to sell to majors also?
    - Also, where to get the money? (Past president) Bill Harder requested that the money in our account be spent on travel and workshops.
      - We could A) get people to pay for shirts up front or B) buy prototype shirts to show, then get people to pay for their shirts up front.
    - Bake Sale! We're having a bake sale in the Oak Grove on Halloween, perhaps from 10-4. There was a sign up sheet passed around for baked items and times to sit at the table. Details to come.
  - Indi Week in Review – Recorded show on new housing options with three guests. Needs to be edited, so it won't be on the air until that's done.
  - Media Convergence - Loomis met with the assistant to the dean of humanities and social sciences to propose media convergence project that would tie together interested campus media and professors. He says she liked it. He's planning on putting together a report for the spring and is looking for student help.
  - Alumni Support – Would like to work with Programs committee to bring in alumni to speak about their careers.
- Next
  - θ To be announced.
