Panel Discussion
On
Preparing for an Internship:
Never too Early,
Never too Late

Friday, September 25, 2009, 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Johnson Hall, Room 247 (adjacent to Uhler Hall)

Internship directors from several local APA- and APPIC-accredited internship sites will come together to address the planning and preparation process involved in developing a strong and competitive application. This panel discussion is designed to consider the needs and interests of students who are at all phases of their training. Undergraduate students, also, are encouraged to attend to begin to consider the planning and direction of their undergraduate and graduate education.

Agenda:

- ❖ Light Refreshments
- ❖ Welcome and Opening Remarks
- ❖ Panel Discussion
- ❖ Questions and Answers
- ❖ Closing Remarks
