

Early Graduate Admission Sequence in Speech-Language Pathology

Graduate courses taken during the senior year will count as both undergraduate and graduate credits on your transcript. You will pay the UG tuition rate for those courses.

Junior Year: January 1st Deadline for Application to the Early Graduate Admission Program
Admissions decisions made by January 15th.

Fall Senior Year

- SPLP 408 Organic Disorders (3cr)
- SPLP 412 O&A (3cr)
- SPLP 420 UG Clinic (3cr)
- SPLP 610 Pediatric Speech & Language 1 (3cr)
- SPLP 663 Hearing Clinic (1cr)

Spring Senior Year

- SPLP 615 Evidence-Based Practices (3cr)
- SPLP 611 Pediatric Speech & Language 2 (3cr)
- SPLP 614 Swallowing Disorders (3cr)
- SPLP 661 Treatment Clinic (2cr)

Graduate with your Bachelor's Degree

Summer after Graduation – No Courses or Clinics

Official Enrollment in the Graduate Program: MS in Speech-Language Pathology

1 st Fall Semester	1 st Spring Semester
SPLP 618 Voice Disorders (3cr) SPLP 632 Neurogenic Disorders (3cr) SPLP 662 Diagnostic Clinic (3cr) SPLP 661 Treatment Clinic (2cr)	SPLP 798 Pediatric Internship (6cr) SPLP 644 Professional Issues (2cr) online (distance education fees apply)
Summer Semester SPLP 616 Fluency & Motor Speech Disorders (3cr) SPLP 635 Seminar: Autism (1cr) SPLP 641 Pediatric Feeding & Swallowing (1cr) SPLP 642 Cancer & Craniofacial Disorders (2cr) SPLP 643 Counseling in SLP (1cr) SPLP 664 Simulation Clinic (1cr)
2nd Fall Semester SPLP 796 Adult Healthcare Internship (6cr) SPLP 635 Seminar: AAC (3cr) online (distance education fees apply)
MS Degree Completion: December Graduation

MS Degree Completion: December Graduation