- Please remember that to receive an audio/ alternate format text request through our office, you must purchase or obtain your hard copy/ non-accessible version of the text and be able to provide proof of purchase (or obtainment), if requested by our office.
- Also, as you're thinking about the texts you'd like to request audio/ alternate format versions for this semester, you should first check to find out if the publisher already offers an accessible/ digital eBook version available for purchase by the public (because some publishers won't provide our office with a digital/alternate format version of their text if they already make such available for purchase to the public). To check on this, you should visit the publisher's website, look up the text you need on their website, and find out if they already sell an accessible eBook version via their website (or if they provide a link to a 3rd party website that handles the sale of an eBook version of their text for them). One of the most common 3rd party websites that sells eBook versions of many textbooks for several different publishers is VitalSource (which provides a built-in, accessible screen reader for the online eBooks they sell).
- The attached "Policy for Use of Alternate Format Text Requests" must be signed to receive your requested alternate format texts (see last page of this form).

Please fill out all the information below for the textbooks that you need to request in audio/ alternate format:
