

Course Outline for IUP Early Admission

Early Admission students are permitted to apply up to 40 percent of graduate program credits earned to satisfy the requirements for the undergraduate degree. Upon completion of the undergraduate degree, students will automatically become a graduate student if the following criteria is maintained: 1) a 3.0 undergraduate GPA; 2) are in good academic standing as a graduate student; and 3) fulfill all undergraduate requirements as specified by the department in addition to those listed in the admission letter.

Instructions

List below all graduate courses with credits and how they will apply to your Undergraduate degree and how each course will apply (i.e. indicate whether the graduate course is an undergraduate free elective, major elective, or is a specific course substitution -list the undergraduate course).
