

IUP Spring Methodology Conference on Language Teaching

JOIN US FOR OUR 50TH ANNIVERSARY!

April 24, 2026

To help us make this year's conference extra memorable, we would love to see:

Panel sessions on current topics in world language education
Sessions by IUP Program Graduates and current or retired teachers/faculty

Conference sessions may focus on any topic related to language pedagogy. Sessions should be non-language specific and should feature strategies/approaches that can be incorporated into any foreign language program. Language-specific examples may be used in the session. Conference sessions are one hour in length, and proposals that include "hands-on" participation are strongly encouraged.

1) Presenter Names and Affiliations, 2) e-mail addresses, 3) School Address and Phone Number, 4) Home Address and Phone number. Your proposal should also include 5) a session title, 6) outcomes for participants (what participants will take away from the session), 7) session content, and 8) procedures (how will your session be engaging). Finally, please include 9) a 50-word session description to be published in the conference program. All presenters must complete a confirmation form.

Don't miss this opportunity! Please submit proposals via our electronic form:

Deadline: October 1, 2025
