

College of Fine Arts Application for Dual Baccalaureate Degree

Students who have elected both a primary and a secondary major are assumed to be working toward one degree with two majors. In order to qualify for this degree, a student must complete a minimum of 120 credits and satisfy all requirements for both majors. Majors are not listed on diplomas but both majors appear on transcripts.

If a student wishes to receive two degrees and two diplomas, an application form must be completed and submitted to the office of the Dean of the College of student's secondary major. If your secondary major is in the College of Fine Arts, you have earned a minimum of 28 credits at IUP, and you are in good academic standing, complete this form and return it to 110 Sprowls Hall. Please print neatly and use ink.

To be awarded two degrees (dual baccalaureate degrees); the student must earn a minimum of 30 credits beyond the requirements of the designated primary program of study. The student must also satisfy the following criteria:

- The student may not be graduated until both degrees are completed.
- All requirements for the curriculum of each degree must be satisfied.
- Course requirements overlapping both degree programs do not have to be repeated.
- All university requirements such as minimum GPA and number of residency credits taken at IUP in the major must be met for each degree separately.
- A student who elects to discontinue the pursuit of dual baccalaureate degrees and graduates with one degree will be bound to the Second Baccalaureate Degree requirements if the student returns to IUP in pursuit of a second degree.
