

IUP Symphony Orchestra String Auditions Fall 2024

Students of all majors that play Violin, Viola, Cello, or Bass are welcome in the IUP Symphony Orchestra!

Any questions can be sent to Prof. O'Brien: robrien@iup.edu

String Seating Audition information:

Please schedule a seating audition time here.

Please prepare all of the following for a hearing to determine seating arrangement:
(all string players will be given a place in the orchestra)

1. A scale of your choice in as many octaves as you feel comfortable
2. Orchestral Excerpts: Please prepare both as marked between the stars/brackets

Violin:	Capriol	Tchaikovsky
Viola:	Capriol	Tchaikovsky
Cello:	Capriol	Tchaikovsky
Bass:	Capriol	Tchaikovsky

Links for listening:

Peter Warlock : Capriol Suite \(youtube.com\)

Tschaikowsky: 5. Sinfonie · hr-Sinfonieorchester · Manfred Honeck \(youtube.com\)

3. A short solo of your choice (approx. 2 minutes in length) that you feel demonstrates your skills on your instrument. This can be an excerpt from a longer piece. If you have questions about selecting something to play, contact:
Dr. Linda Jennings: ljennings@iup.edu

First Rehearsal:

We will have rehearsal the first Monday of the semester, August 26th, to get to know each other and read through some of the music for our first concert. Please be ready with your instrument in Cogswell 121 at 7:30pm.