Concert Dress

Dress for the concert will be the t-shirt for the event, as well as dark pants that are a solid color (jeans, khakis, etc. are all fine). Please feel free to wear the t-shirt over another short or long-sleeved shirt. Also, please feel free to wear comfortable footwear, including tennis shoes.

Parking

Free parking for the concert is available in the parking garage located behind Cogswell Hall. The garage may be accessed from either Grant Street or Papermill Avenue (please find a downloadable IUP Campus Parking map on this website – it is lot number 19). Parking is free after 5pm on weekdays in the garage provided that you do not park in a space with a 24/7 placard. After 5pm, you may park in any space or spaces labeled with an “R” or “Reserved” (without a 24/7 placard). Additional parking is available in lot numbers that are indicated on the IUP Campus Parking map. The closes lot numbers to Fisher Auditorium are 49, 38, 39, 11, 2, and 37. Parking is free in these lots as well after 5pm provided you do not park in a reserved space.

Meals

All meals for this event, including lunch, dinner, and snacks, are included in the registration fee.

Admission Fee for Concert

$5 for adults / $3 for students and senior citizens.

Recording

A downloadable recording of the concert is included in your registration fee. All students will receive a document that has a QR code as well as a website address that will take them to a webpage. This webpage will allow them download either the entire concert or individual pieces.

Looking forward to seeing you in November!
