18TH ANNUAL WOMEN IN STEM SUMMIT

Monday April 3, 2023

4:00-7:00 PM

Toretti Auditorium, KCAC

Join us for light refreshments, networking, and poster presentations at 4-5 PM, followed at 5 PM by presentation of the Patricia Hilliard Robertson Memorial scholarship, introductory speaker Dr. Lindsay Matolyak, and keynote speaker, Dr. Deanne Snively.

Dr. Lindsay Matolyak graduated in 2012 from IUP with a BS in Chemistry. She completed her PhD at Case Western Reserve University and is currently a Research Associate at PPG in Pittsburgh, where she focuses on polymeric waterborne coatings.

Dr. Deanne Snively served as the Dean of the IUP College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics from 2011 until her recent retirement. Before coming to IUP, she held several leadership positions at Bowling Green State University. She completed her Ph.D. in Physical Chemistry at Yale University and a Postdoctoral Fellowship at Stanford University. A native of Ohio, Dr. Snively received her Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from The Ohio State University. She is an expert in vibrational overtone spectroscopy and chemical reactions initiated by vibrational overtone irradiation and has received several awards over the course of her distinguished career.
