

Proposed Indiana University of Pennsylvania College of Osteopathic Medicine (Proposed IUPCOM—Candidate Status—Seeking Accreditation)

COCA Pre-Accreditation Element 9.3: Transfer Policies
Pre-Accreditation Submission 9.3-1: Transfer Policies

Pursuant to 34 CFR § 688.43(a)(11), this policy contains regulations governing transfer and admission with advanced standing related to the proposed IUPCOM Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (D.O.) program.

It is currently the policy of the proposed IUPCOM to not accept transfer students or students with advanced standing into its proposed Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine program. Further, the proposed IUPCOM does not currently accept any credit earned at another institution for purposes of transfer, nor does it apply transfer credit to any courses.

The proposed IUPCOM does not currently have any articulation agreements with institutions for transferring from another college of osteopathic medicine accredited by the American Osteopathic Association's Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation (COCA), or any other school of medicine accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME).
