GENERAL REPORT NOTES:

*Projects with Co-PI’s from different colleges/departments/divisions are each credited with equal portions of the dollar value of the sponsored project. These projects are designated with an * and are listed separately under the college/dept/division of BOTH the PI and the Co-PI. Therefore, to count the full amount of the award, you need to add the dollars associated with all of the PI’s and Co-PI’s listed. This is articulated in the Appendix: 2010/2011 Awards By Primary Investigator.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania and the IUP Research Institute jointly administer external funds. The IUP Research Institute is a 501c(3) (tax exempt) organization that operates independently for the benefit of Indiana University of Pennsylvania, under the terms of the Affiliation Agreement (2003). The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services serves as our negotiating and governing body with an approved Facilities and Administration rate of SWB (Salaries, Wages, Benefits) 50.48% for on-campus or 22.14% for off-campus.
