TO: Dr. David Pistole and Dr. Gail Sechrist, Liberal Studies and UWCC

We are requesting a catalog description change for the following courses in the Bachelor of Science in Art Education program:

ARED 317: Art in K-6 Programs
and
ARED 318: Art in 7-12 Programs

We are requesting that they both have Prerequisite: Admission to Step I of the 3-Step Process added before each description.

We would also like to revise the description of ARED 317 to make it more concise.

See the old and new versions on the next page.

Sincerely,

Dr. Marjorie Mambo
Coordinator of Art Education.

Old Descriptions:

ARED 317: Art in K-6 Programs

3c-01-3cr

A methodology course for preparing art education pre-service teachers to teach art in grades K-6. Includes children's artistic development, needs of special populations, and types of art programs and centers on planning, motivation, content, and evaluation of art lessons for all students in elementary art classes. Students apply theories and knowledge to the design of instructional curricula, units and lessons, as well as practice and critique the delivery of instruction. Also provides students with information regarding the teaching of art with special needs populations.

ARED 318: Art in 7-12 Programs

3c-01-3cr

Explores a number of practical and theoretical approaches related to the teaching of studio art in 7-12 public school settings. Of primary interest will be the potential for application of college-level art theories and techniques in 7-12 settings, along with exploring a variety of research writing techniques. This course will also provide students with information regarding the teaching of art with special needs populations.
