II. Description of the Curriculum change

The only change to this course is in the prerequisites. There will no longer be any prerequisites required for admission to this course.

OLD Catalog Description:

EDHL 114 Introduction to Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Persons

3c-0l-3cr

Prerequisites: EDHH majors only

Deals with the different approaches used in teaching students who are deaf or hard of hearing—manual language, oral language, and total communication. The historical background of each approach is presented with its strengths and weaknesses. Criteria for the use of each approach established in consideration of degree of loss exhibited by the pupil, the age of onset, and the social and psychological implications.
