Rationale for Proposal

(Q) Why is this Course Being Proposed?*

This course will be offered within the Disability Services Program and the second course in a sequence of four (4) courses that will result in acquisition of the competencies necessary to be an effective Jeb Coach. These four courses could also comprise a core around which a minor in Competitive Employment /Job Coaching, Such a minor would have appeal to Disability Services, Sociology and/or Psychology majors.

This course will currently be offered within the Disability Services Program as a controlled elective and serves as the second course in a sequence of four (4) courses that will result in acquisition of the competencies necessary to be an effective Job Coach.

It is intended these four courses, in combination with EDEX 458 will comprise a concentration, or track, in Competitive Employment/Job Coaching. This concentration will become a part of a larger revision of the Disability Services Program following the approval of this sequence of employment courses and the approval of BCaBA concentration which is a separate curricular action within the department.

Once approved the employment courses and the BCaBA concentration will be used along with a fifteen credit concentration in Deaf Studies and a fifteen credit concentration in Child Development to redesign the Disability Services Program to have a curriculum that can be tailored using the menu of concentrations in four specific fields of study thus allowing program graduates to have a very focused area of expertise upon graduation.
