Part II: Description of Curriculum Change

1. Catalog Description

CRIM 255 Law, Social Control, and Society

3 class hours

0 lab hours

Prerequisites: CRIM 101 and CRIM 102

3 semester hours

(3c-0l-3sh)

The evolution and development of the modern legal system. Topics include civil, criminal, and administration law, the legal profession, legal systems in American society, and the law as one of many instruments of social control and social change.

2. List of proposed changes

Old Title/Number: CRIM 357 Law, Social Control, and Society

New Title/Number: CRIM 255 Law, Social Control, and Society

Prerequisites: CRIM 101 and CRIM 102

3. Justification for number change

This course is being proposed as one of 5 controlled electives in Group A (see new curriculum on pp 3-4). We are re-numbering this course to match the numbers of the other courses in Group A, to permit easy identification for students.

The prerequisite requirement is added to insure that all students enrolled in this course have completed a course on criminological theory and a course on the criminal justice system prior to beginning this class.
