Part II. Proposal to change the catalog description, that is to remove reference to the program known as FLISET (Foreign Languages and International Studies for Elementary Teaching)

Under the Department of Spanish, the 2005-06 Undergraduate Catalog currently has the following text (page 118 in the hard copy, just after the section on the Spanish for Elementary Education concentration):

“Elementary Education students wishing to prepare to teach in elementary programs where content teaching in Spanish is the objective should enroll in the Foreign Languages and International Studies for Elementary Teaching (FLISET) program described under the Department of Professional Studies in Education.”

The proposed change is to omit the paragraph quoted above.

The rationale for the change is that the Department of Spanish is now proposing a minor in Spanish for Elementary Teaching that would take the place of the current academic specialty known as FLISET. This proposal is to eliminate reference to the FLISET specialty that will no longer exist. (The Department of Professional Studies in Education has written a letter in support of the proposed new minor. See the accompanying proposal for the new minor.)

Once this proposal and the proposal for the minor are approved by the College of Humanities and Social Science, the Department of Spanish will ask the Department of Professional Studies in Education to begin the procedure for the section on FLISET to be omitted from the Professional Studies section of the catalog. Once that proposal has been approved by the College of Education and Educational Technology, all three proposals can be considered by the UWUCC.
