Rationale for Proposed Changes
(A) Why is the program being revised?*	The program is being revised to add GEOG 222 Geography of National Parks and RGPL 426 Environmental Land Use Planning to the track options. Geography of National Parks is a new course, while Environmental Land Use Planning was in the old Energy Track and it should have stayed on the list of track recommendations for the revised track. Additionally in the Fall of 2018 the course number of Research Seminar was changed from 412 to 498. Lastly, after last spring's revisions the catalog editor left out the RGPL prefix for the last Recommended course. The course number of Planning Policy, Implementation, and Administration had changed from RGPL 464 to RGPL 462 plus it is crosslisted and the department had failed to catch those errors last spring.

(B) Identify ALL Program Level Student

Learning Outcomes (PSLO)

Indicate any SLOs that have been changed highlighting them in red.*

- Outcomes must be measurable
- 4-6 outcomes recommended for degree programs
- Tracks, concentrations, certificates must have at least one outcome that is unique from a related degree program
- Minors and majors may share outcomes
- PLSLOs will be evaluated as part of the program's assessment plan

Students will be able to:

#	Outcome	How outcome measured
1	Comprehend the processes that shape the lithosphere, biosphere, and atmosphere and apply that knowledge in interpreting the spatial distribution of physical and environmental phenomena.	Primarily assignments and exam questions in Physiography, Climatology that deal with the processes that impact the distribution of the natural environment, with supplement in environmental track classes.
2	Demonstrate applied and conceptual aspects of the major themes and paradigms related to Geography and are familiar with important scholars in the discipline.	Assignments, exam questions, quizzes and term paper in GEOG 230 Cultural Geography and GEOG 411 History of Geography that deal with the concepts of the field and major scholars.
3	Explain basic geographic concepts at various regional scales.	Exam Questions, exercises and papers in GEOG 230 Cultural Geography, GEOG 341 Climatology, GEOG 342 Physiography, and GEOG 25X Regional Geography that apply geographic concepts at regional scales.
4	Apply basic standards of scholarship to geographical problems.	Papers and projects in GEOG 411 History of Geography and GEOG 498 Research Seminar especially the term papers and portfolio from 498.

(C) Implications of the change on the program, other programs and the Students:*	The addition of GEOG 222 will provide another option for students in the track. The change should have no impacts on other programs.
