Old Catalog Description and Prerequisite

HRIM 350 Introduction to the Casino Industry

3c-01-3cr

Prerequisites: Sophomore standing or instructor permission

Introduces the multibillion-dollar casino industry. Examines the gaming industry from a historical perspective and includes legal, social, economic issues. Also reviews the various games played in casinos and the current trends, as well as the most popular casino destinations in the world. Special attention is devoted to the growth of casinos on cruise ships, on Native American reservations, and on riverboats in the United States. Includes a field trip to Atlantic city or another casino setting, which occurs on a weekend. The field trip serves as a catalyst to appreciate all of the theoretical concepts discussed in the lectures.

3. Justification / rationale for the change(s).

Prefix was never changed from previous program name (Hotel, Restaurant, and Institutional Management) to one reflective of the current program (Hospitality Management).

Prerequisites lack specific relevance for course.

Revised course description eliminates excessive verbiage.
