Introduces students to elementary concepts of probability and statistics which will enable them to analyze data, make predictions, and determine which concepts may be used with children.

2. A listing of the proposed change giving the old title and number and the new title and number.

Old title and number:

MA 317 Introduction to Probability and Statistics

New title and number:

MA 317 Probability and Statistics for Elementary and Middle School Teachers

3. Justification/rationale for the change.

There has been some confusion between this course and the three other introductory courses in probability and statistics which the department offers. The new title, which reflects the purpose and content of the course, should help alleviate that confusion.
