PART II

1. Individually Designed Minor

As a minor, philosophy has much to offer in helping individuals of various backgrounds better understand the fundamental assumptions of their disciplines. For that reason, the minor in Philosophy will be individually designed to meet special career needs and personal interests. Selection of courses will be accomplished through discussions with and approval of the department adviser. The minimum requirement for a minor is 15 semester hours with the restrictions on the major applying to the minor also except that no more than 3 non-classwork credits may be counted toward the minor. Students must expect careful planning in any program approved. For further explanations and suggestions, see department adviser.
