Part II: THTR 350 Pre-requisite Change Description of the Curriculum Change

Section 1: Catalog Change

[Note: there is no new syllabus of record for this course as the only change being requested in the catalog listing is the prerequisite. This is necessitated by the fact that one of the previous prerequisites for this course is being deleted and replaced in this new curriculum proposal.]

Catalog Description

THTR 350 Directing 3 credits

3 lecture hours

0 lab hours

3c-0l-2sh

Prerequisites: THTR 111, 240 or permission of instructor

An introduction to basic directing skills: casting, floor plans, blocking, rehearsal procedures, and the applications of scenes and character analysis. Students will prepare short scenes for class presentation.

Section 2: Summary of the proposed revision

The only change in this revision is a change of prerequisite.

Section 3: Justification/rationale for the revision

One of the previous prerequisites was THTR 110 Script Analysis. It has been replaced by THTR 111 Foundations of Theater that still has a major script analysis focus in this new course. Therefore, this course can readily serve as the preparation necessary in script analysis skills needed for THTR 350 Directing.

Section 4: Old syllabus of record

As there is no new syllabus of record, there is no need to submit an old syllabus of record for comparison.
