Current Title, Prerequisite and Catalog Description:

DANC 353 Dance Curriculum and Instruction

3c-01-3sh

Prerequisite: One of the following introductory or advanced level dance classes: DANC 250, 260, 270, 280, 290, 485, or by permission of the instructor.

Introduces the necessary teaching skills and curriculum development needed to understand the pedagogical structure for teaching dance. The class will learn the approaches to teaching that are unique to dance and will learn how to design dance curriculum.

Proposed Title, Prerequisite and Catalog Description:

DANC 353 Dance Curriculum and Instruction

3c-01-3sh

Prerequisite: Three of the following introductory or advanced level dance classes: DANC 250, 260, 270, 280, 290, 485, or by permission of the instructor.

Introduces the necessary teaching skills and curriculum development needed to understand the pedagogical structure for teaching dance. The class will learn the approaches to teaching that are unique to dance and will learn how to design dance curriculum.

Rationale: Students taking this course with only one technique class in their background do not have sufficient knowledge, experience, or dance vocabulary from which to draw in order to successfully achieve the course objectives. Students who have had measurable dance training prior to entering the minor program are the exception.
